Chad's Quick Tip

If you notice any of the warning signs of a natural gas leak, please leave the area immediately and call your utility company's emergency number or dial 911.

BE SAFE, MAKE THE CALL

Although the natural gas delivery system is extremely safe, it is not infallible. Leaks do occur on occasion, but they usually can be detected in one of three ways.

By Smell

Because the gas is odorless, a sulfur-based odorant is added to give it a rotten-egg smell that warns of its presence.

By Sight

Escaping gas affects the nutrients in soil, so discolored soil or dead vegetation near a pipeline may indicate a leak.

By Sound

Natural gas leaks may make a hissing or a high-pitched whistling noise.

Stephen, we are very proud of you. Your decision to Be an Eagle Scout and not just "Get the Eagle Scout" has changed your life and its direction. The skills you have acquired in Scouting will serve you well as you pursue your life's goals. I hope you will look back on the time you spent in Scouting with your family and friends as time well spent. We have very much enjoyed watching you grow from a Tiger Cub to a mature young man. Remember to keep God first in your life and "all these things will be added unto you." Matt. 6:33 We love you very much. "Once an Eagle Always an Eagle" "

THE EAGLE SCOUT AWARD

The Eagle Scout Award is the seventh and topmost step in the succession of progress awards issued by the Boy Scouts of America. It represents the highest level of achievement in skill, in service, and in leadership recognized in Scouting.

As with each of the steps in the Boy Scout advancement plan, progress toward the Eagle Scout Award is cumulative. Only those Scouts who have maintained a term of active membership since becoming a Life Scout, demonstrated Scout spirit and leadership, and earned a total of twenty-one elected and required merit badges are eligible to seek the Eagle Scout Award.

Opportunities for individual achievement and recognition are built into the regular Scouting activities of each troop. An Eagle Scout's standing depends to an even greater extent on the way he demonstrates Scouting spirit. His adherence to the Scout Oath and Scout Law is determined through personal review by his Scoutmaster, as well as through recommendations with teachers, clergymen, and other community leaders.

Only upon satisfying the exacting tests of skill, community service and participation in Scouting leadership, may a Scout join the elite few who enter the Scout's Court of Honor to receive the Eagle Scout Award.
